ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION STRATEGIES:

The purpose of assessment and evaluation is to improve student learning. Assessment and evaluation are based on the provincial curriculum expectations and the achievement levels outlined in the curriculum document. In order to ensure that assessment and evaluation are valid and reliable, and that they lead to the improvement of student learning, teachers use a variety of strategies throughout the course, including: providing students with feedback about their work (known as assessment for learning), helping to set learning goals and monitor their own progress (known as assessment as learning), and evaluation and reporting of progress in the form of grades and marks (known as assessment of learning).

ASSESSMENT AND EVALUATION CATEGORIES AND WEIGHTS:

Achievement Chart Categories (Term)
Achievement Category	Percentage
Listening	17.5%
Speaking	17.5%
Reading	17.5%
Writing	17.5%

Evaluation / Weight of Marks

LEARNING SKILLS AND WORK HABITS ASSESSMENT:

The development of learning skills and work habits is an integral part of student learning.

These skills are:

Responsibility	Collaboration
Organization	Initiative
Independent Work	Self-Regulation

Learning skills and work habits influence student achievement and are included as a formal part of the assessment and evaluation process. Learning skills and work habits will be assessed through a variety of teacher strategies. (e.g. observation, student /teacher conference, self-reflection, checklists, exit cards, etc.) These important learning skills and work habits will be formally reported on the Provincial Report Card according to the following scale: E - Excellent, G - Good, S - Satisfactory, N - Needs Improvement.

LEARNING SKILLS ASSESSMENT:

The following skills will be monitored on an on-going basis throughout the year

- self-regulation skills
- completion of homework and assignments on time
- organization of notebooks
- speaking and writing in French in class
- positive participation in class
- contribution to group activities
- the ability to work independently
- the ability to stay on task
- the initiative taken to enhance language skills
- punctuality and attendance
- preparedness for class

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Academic Dishonesty - Cheating and Plagiarism:

All learning tasks, assignments, tests and exams which students submit for evaluation must be their own work. Cheating and plagiarism (including the use of an online translator) is a serious offence which will not be condoned. Academic consequences will result.

LATE AND MISSED ASSIGNMENTS - STUDENT ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are expected to:

- be responsible for providing evidence of their achievement of the overall expectations within the time frame specified by the teacher, and in a form approved by the teacher;
- understand that there will be consequences for not completing assignments for evaluation and/or for submitting those assignments late;
- use class time productively;
- in extenuating circumstances, request an extension from the teacher before the due date.
- Mark deductions for late and missed assignments may apply to major assignments only.

Students are encouraged to obtain their own French-English dictionaries (electronic or paper version) to better enable language learning. Here are some suggested websites: <http://www.linguee.com> and <http://www.wordreference.com>

Online translators are not dictionaries, nor should they be used as such.

Seek help early! Students with questions or struggles should speak with their teacher as early as possible to arrange a mutually agreed upon time for extra help. Students may also ask their guidance counsellor to be paired up with a Peer Tutor. Free online tutoring in French is offered at <http://voilalearning.com/en/free-online-tutoring/>

We hope that you have a great year learning and exploring the world around you, in Canada's second official language!

Bonne rentrée 2019!
