Principal's Message

As the beginning of quadmester two approaches, I wanted to express our gratitude and appreciation of all students, staff, and families for their flexibility and positivity during this time of change. Our students are getting used to either the full remote learning model or in-person adaptive model of learning. Virtual clubs are beginning and students have elected their parliament for the year. As previously, communicated, the daily schedule and school calendar have been updated for the next quadmester. As always, should you have any questions or concerns, I can be reached at: t.vacante@tvdsb.ca and our Vice-Principal, Mr. McLean can be reached at: mark.mclean@tvdsb.ca

Reminders for November 12th and 13th

November 12 and November 13 are designated for students who may benefit from individualized support for credit rescue, recovery and improvement. Students who do not require individualized support will not attend school on November 12 and 13. In-person, individualized support is by appointment only (to maintain health and safety requirements) and students may also receive support in an online environment. Students in the Forest City Program will attend school on these days.

Nutrition Breaks

Due to the upcoming changes to the daily schedule for quadmester two, students are reminded to bring snacks and a water bottle each day for use in their morning nutrition breaks.

COVID Safety Protocol Reminders for Quadmester Two

Students are doing a very good job with mask wearing and hand sanitizing. We are asking that you review the importance of physical distancing at school. Now that our students have been back for a bit, we are noticing that they are getting more comfortable. It is the hand hygiene, mask wearing and physical distancing together, that will keep us all safe. Also, please remember to complete the COVID Daily Screening every morning.

Congratulations Jennifer!

We are so pleased to share that Jennifer L. has won the J. Allyn Taylor Community Service Award for her work on London Central's Social Justice Club. This award is presented to a student who demonstrates outstanding dedication to the community. Congratulations to Jennifer on this accomplishment!
